

Topic: Team building exercises for strategic planning days

Most businesses have strategic planning days which can produce great results if the day is structured well.

A constructive element to feature in a strategic planning day is a team building activity – an energising way to set up the group for a productive, innovative and thoughtful day.

Here are 4 short, fun indoor or outdoor team building activities to get your team in a positive frame of mind

1. Energisers

Energisers and ice breakers are ideal activities to break up and invigorate planning days. They are short, sharp, fun, interactive and high energy, and can be tailored to the theme or objectives of any corporate event.

2. Boot Camp

Boot Camp is a fun yet intense team program focused on group dynamics, problem solving and tactical survival. With activities tailored for all fitness levels, participants will enjoy the outdoors whilst working in teams to overcome the various challenges.

3. Risk Reward

Will your team be a corporate success or apply for bankruptcy in Risk Reward? Requiring strategy, trust, teamwork and process improvement, the objective is to grow your finances through calculated risk taking and become the most profitable!

4. Safe Crack

Your help is needed to identify the leaders of a diamond smuggling ring. That is the case in Safe Crack! Work as a team to sift through the evidence, uncover the combination to a safe and identify the culprits.
